

Healthy Kids Day
The Mann Center for the Performing Arts
Saturday, May 22, 2010

The Children's Hospital of Philadelphia (CHOP) will be celebrating its second free Healthy Kids Day. Families from throughout the tri-state region can attend and focus on health and wellness that not only improves health outcomes for their children but for the entire family. Health information, education, wellness screenings, and demonstrations will be provided while having fun. 2009's highlights included a special concert performed by national children's music sensation, "The Laurie Berkner Band featuring Adam Bernstein, Susie Lampert and Bob Golden."
